November 2018

The month of November brings fond memories of childhood trips to my Grandmother's house in Paulding, Ohio. Many of these road trips occurred during the cherished holiday of Thanksgiving. I can still remember the aroma emanating from the kitchen and the grand dining room table carefully adorned with a smorgasbord guaranteed to satisfy any hungry heart.

During one particularly cold Thanksgiving trip, my Grandfather found inspiration to instruct me on some fundamentals of a golf swing. Don't ask me why standing in freezing temperatures was a good time to model Arnold Palmer. But the time spent with my beloved Grandfather was more than enough to endure the harsh Ohio winter.

As we all prepare for the month of November and that special Thursday marking a day to give thanks for the harvest, remember to begin by giving thanks for those special 'saints' that have blessed and guided you in life. The church begins November with the celebration of All Saint's Sunday where we remember our loved ones who have made the journey to their everlasting rest. Sometimes our memories remind us of the sting of grief, but hopefully there is strength to give thanks to the Lord above for the blessings of these loved ones.

The Protestant tradition doesn't often embrace the idea that saints are people in heaven that we can approach to intercede for us. But I believe that our loved ones are part of 'the great cloud of witnesses' that surround us and are praying for us. I like to imagine a grand football stadium full of fans cheering their team on to victory. That's how I imagine the saints of heaven; cheering us on to persevere in this life with faith, hope and love.

Who are you grateful for? What saint has led you to a deeper sense of faith in God? What individual enshrined in you the powerful sense of community and family ties?

We often learn so much about God and life by watching others. We learn by imitation. It helps to have an example of what we're trying to become, whether it's a dancer, firefighter, musician, marathon runner, or a disciple of Jesus Christ. It helps to have a few saints who model what we're supposed to look like.

Start off the month of November by giving thanks to God for those special saints in your life, and remember to come to worship on November 4 as we celebrate and remember those in our church family who have recently entered in the peace of Christ.

In Christ's Service,
Andy

A Note from the Minister of Music

Over the past several weeks, I have seen numerous Facebook posts of friends who have attended the Texas State Fair. Included in these pictures are the iconic Big Tex as well as pictures of the fair food and the Midway. The posts bring back many memories from my childhood. Growing up, my parents would try to take my siblings and I to fair each year, esp. on "German Day." As a bonus, my parents would also plan on us attending the musical which was playing at the Fair Park Music Hall. I can't remember all the shows we saw, but I do remember being amazed by the sets, the singing, and the spectacle (and the 2-3 hour respite from the Texas October heat wasn't bad either.) While I enjoyed watching the musicals, it wasn't until I was in a musical that I really got hooked and learned to appreciate what goes in to putting on a production. After I was in a production, I gained a better insight into the musical, its characters and its content. Sure it's nice to be entertained by being in an audience, but I learned so much more by being active and involved. While attending a theatrical production often means being a spectator, being in worship really should not. In the average worship service, there are moments when those persons in attendance have an opportunity to actively participate. Singing the hymns/songs, participating in the liturgy, experiencing the sacraments are all ways in which you can actively participate. You can even follow along in the pew Bible while the scripture is being read. How much you get involved in worship is up to you. But wouldn't it be more interesting if you were actively invested in it? Have you ever noticed how quickly time passes when you're actively doing something? Parents discourage their children from becoming "couch potatoes." During worship, God doesn't want us to be "pew potatoes," but wants us to be active in our worship. God doesn't dictate our participation level, but calls us into active worship with our brothers and sisters. Which will you choose? Pew Potato or Active Worshiper?

All Saints Sunday November 4

On Sunday November 4, during the morning worship services, we will celebrate All Saints Sunday. All Saints Day actually falls on November 1, so the first Sunday in November has been designated as All Saints Sunday. The liturgical color for the day is typically white. During the services, we will take the opportunity to remember those of our congregation who have passed since the last All Saints Sunday. Let's celebrate the lives of those we have loved.

Veterans Day Exhibit, Nov. 11

Veterans Day occurs on November 11. Our country has chosen set aside a special day to recognize and honor those living veterans who served honorably in the defense of our country. Do you know somebody who is a veteran? Are you a veteran? The Worship and Fine Arts Team would like to celebrate our veterans by sponsoring a Veterans Day Exhibit on Sunday morning, November 11. As you come to worship or Sunday School, bring the picture of your veteran to the Fellowship Hall. Tables will be set up upon which you can place your veteran's picture. Please label your picture with the name of the veteran, in which branch of the Armed Forces they served (or currently serve), and your name. Pictures should be self-standing. Pictures can be picked up following the 11 a.m. services. Through Wednesday, Nov. 7 you can also electronically submit a picture as a jpg or pdf through email. To email your picture or for more information, contact Mark Hixon at Mark@ManchacaUMC.org or 512-282-7274.

ADULT MINISTRIES

Advent Bible Studies Coming Soon!

Advent means “coming” and it’s the time of year when we wait with great hope and anticipation the coming of Jesus. We wait for the Christ child to be born in Bethlehem, but we also wait to witness Christ’s coming again. It’s a time of year when we expect to see the in-breaking of God’s kingdom into our world. Our team is working on putting together a series of Advent studies for you to consider to enhance your season of waiting. Whether it’s through a Sunday school class, an online discussion group, or on a special day and time, we encourage you to find a small group to plug into and grow together in your faith as you wait for Christ’s light to dawn. Check for Advent study information in the Advent calendar and study brochure (available in early November), as well as on our website, in the bulletins and through email blasts.

[A laity support group for parents, friends, family, and allies of LGBTQ persons]

As we go into the holiday season, our thoughts turn more and more to family and friends. It should be a time of joy and thanksgiving but too often, there are estrangements that have occurred and we don’t know how to undo them. This is particularly true with our gay children. Will someone be missing from your family Thanksgiving table this year? Will someone be there who is loved but this year there is a tension in the air that was not apparent last year? You don’t have to do this alone. There are many who have been in your shoes and are willing to listen or talk if it will help. Join us any time. No reservation needed. If you need more information, call Loretta [mother of a gay son] 281-615-6149 [cell] or Kim 512-282-7274 [at the church]. We gather the first Tuesday of each month to share.

SERVICE AND OUTREACH

Harvest Food and FUND DRIVE

NOVEMBER 4th-25th

Harvest is the time for gathering crops at the end of the growing season and celebrating the bountiful harvest by giving thanks and enjoying a big feast. Also, most of us take stock of our abundant lives. Yet many of our neighbors struggle to feed their families on a day-to-day basis. During this harvest season, the Missions Commission invites you to give thanks by sharing your blessings with others in our area who are less fortunate. This may be done through donations of food and money for the Food Pantry.

Though out the year, MUMC Food Pantry provides sacks of food to persons who request aid in the church office. Each sack provides at least three basic meals and costs about $15 to purchase. During a typical month, 30 sacks of food are given out. We also support the Backpack Ministry at Menchaca and weekend food sacks for Akin's Homeless. This year we added the Blessing Box which enables neighbors in need to get food when the church is not open. During November and December the Food Pantry provides sacks filled with food for a traditional holiday meal.

We encourage you to bring food from the shopping list below and place them in the Hospitality Area or near the stage in the Family Life Center through November 25th. Monetary donations may be made to MUMC and designated for the Food Pantry.

Contact Margaret Bowen at mabowen314@gmail.com for more info.

College is a fun, exciting and stressful time in the lives of young adults. We would like all of our college students to feel loved and supported by their church family in their college endeavors so we will be sending care packages to arrive before finals. If you have a student that you know would appreciate a care package, I need your name, students name & students address.

Please email this information to Melodee Konde:

konde@swbell.net.

We are also seeking food or small school supply donations which may be dropped off at the MUMC office anytime on or before November 25th. We typically send out 25 boxes.

Some suggested items (pre-packaged): Granola bars, Cracker packets, Jerky, Highlighters, Trail mix, Microwave Popcorn, Gum, Post It Notes, Protein bars, Candy, Cookies

Thanks so much for your help!!

SOCHAC 5K Run & Kids Dash

Our annual 5K Run and Kids Dash is fast approaching! The race looks a little different this year - it has been re-named, re-imaged, and sports an 80s theme. We also have a new fast and flat race route that starts and finishes at our church and will include Lowden Lane. Our goal is to register 200 runners and pack at least 200 Manna Bags during the Kids Dash.

This event is our church's biggest fundraiser in support of three area South Austin Schools - Menchaca Elementary, Paredes Middle School, and Akins High School. Our role in serving these students is only possible with adequate funding. You can help by signing up as a participant, being a financial sponsor (as an individual or through your own business), or volunteering along the way. We need everyone's help for the race to be a success!

The race is scheduled for Saturday, February 23, 2019, at 8:00 a.m. The Kids Dash will begin at 9:00 a.m.

Please visit our race website for more information and to sign up: tinyurl.com/2019sochac. Questions? Contact Jena Abel, SoChac5K@gmail.com.
